are 34 branches in Ocean County, 7 in Cape May County, 6 in Atlantic County and one in Burlington County. Monmouth County is home to two offices, Freehold and Tinton Falls, with a third office opening in Allaire Plaze in Wall Township in July. The Tinton Falls office, known as the "Monmouth Banking Center" is located at 1 Hovchild Plaza, 4000 Route 66 East and serves as a "mini-headquarters" by providing full Trust, Mortgage and Lending services along with a "Super Branch." The Super Branch offers extended lobby hours until 6 p.m. every Wednesday. TOM machines are located at all three Monmouth County offices. Additional information about the Bank and its services is available by calling 1-800-356-4141. □

gestion and unsightly hodgepodge developments that plague New Jersey today."

His efforts also reflect his deep commitment to his heritage and homeland. His donations of time, effort and money to survivors and victims' families who suffered through the devastating 1988 Armenian earthquake have been well-documented elsewhere.

Humble beginnings alone do not make a successful business person. A clear recall of those humble beginnings will not spell success either unless the memory of them, plus the willingness to strive for accomplishments are put into everyday practice. Referring to the finishing touches on Hovchild Park, Hovnanian admits that he could be found in overalls sweeping up on week-ends and making sure the elegant marble slabs that floor the building were properly placed. "You have to show the people that you're willing to work too. You can't be too proud to sweep up the place or get your hands dirty."

"You have to show the people that you're willing to work too. You can't be too proud to sweep up the place..."

His driving inclination to do just that, and his debt-free philosophy are two of the major factors that have placed Hirair Hovnanian at the pinnacle of his profession. □
