

Summary of continuous charitable distributions made by The Hiraïr and Anna Hovnanian Foundation for Spring 2018

Scholarships:

The second round of scholarship submissions for the Spring of 2018 was conducted in November, 2017. From the immense number of applications (around 4,000), only about 600 have been successful.

Students from more than 20 state universities participated in highly competitive contest, in which high academic performance played a vital role.

Those who got Hovnanian scholarship didn't stop expressing their gratitude and words of appreciation, and we are gladly quoting few of those:

1. Lusine Apresyan, sophomore at American University of Armenia, MBA
"It is a great honor for me to be selected as one for the recipients of Hovnanian scholarship and I want to express my sincere gratitude for your generous support. The scholarship award has a great importance for me and my family. It facilitates the financial burden of my education for my parents. Thanks to your generosity and kindness, I will be able to continue my education at the AUA and be a step closer to my goals and ambitions. Furthermore, Hovnanian scholarship had a huge impact on me. The scholarship award motivates me to study harder. It helped me to believe in myself, simultaneously promoting me to aspire to more"
2. Meline Iskandaryan, Yerevan State University, branch in Ijevan, B.S. in Economics
"On behalf of myself and my family I'd like to express my deepest thankfulness to your Foundation and staff for helping to pay my studies at the university. I promise to work harder and contribute with the knowledge to my motherland. Owing to your foundation many students have the opportunity to study at the universities, get read of financial burdens, which could have otherwise interfere with reaching their goals"
3. Ani Mikayelyan, Yerevan State University, B.S. in foreign languages
"Honorable Mr. and Mrs.Hovnanians, I know the kindness and support of mankind is a God's gift and is worth admiration. I heard, that you are supporting many students by spreading your goodwill in education, and recently felt that myself by being awarded Hovnanian scholarship. As for that I convey my sincere gratitude to you and think that in future I'll be useful to my motherland and people with the knowledge I obtain.”

4. Nelli Muradyan, Yerevan State University, B.S. in law

“On behalf of my whole family I thank Hirair and Anna Hovnanian Foundation for their humanitarian and softhearted attitude. The scholarship which I've got is even more aspiring and obligatory for doing my best in studying. I aim to become educated and deserving citizen of my country, and your support in that process is very huge. Wish your family prosperity and success!”

We truly hope that each of our scholars upon graduating will contribute to the welfare and prosperity of Armenia, and below forward the appeal of the founder and president of Hirair and Anna Hovnanian foundation, Mr.Hirair Hovnanian to Armenian students:

“Dear students, by contributing towards your education at local universities, my aim is to help you gain the knowledge you need for contributing to the welfare and prosperity of Armenia. I strongly believe that you are the future and the necessary force for bettering the life conditions of Armenian nation. Your commitment and readiness to reach new heights in education is very important, because well-educated nation is a powerful and driving force for the development of the country. Keep your spirits and determination unshaken and you will always walk the glory road. With courage, faith and great effort, you will achieve everything you desire, Wish you every success!!”

Hirair Hovnanian

Founding President

The Hirair and Anna Hovnanian Foundaiton